Southend Association of Voluntary Services, (SAVS) is delighted to announce that their revised Community Support Directory is now available to view and search online. With more than 600 entries the directory is packed full of useful local information and contacts. The directory covers a variety of topics including; health, disability, arts, the environment, community groups, older people, children, housing and many more.

SAVS Media & Communications Manager, Chris Silvey, said: "Being online makes the directory even easier to use and search".

SAVS Information officer, Edwina Mitchell added: "We hope people will find it useful and as always we welcome feedback ideas and suggestions".

Background:

Southend Association of Voluntary Services, or SAVS as we are more frequently known, is a council for voluntary service, (CVS) part of a national network of similar organisations. Our job is to advise and support local, not-for-profit groups. These groups provide all manner of services and include social clubs, groups advising people who care for a relative at home, advice and activities for people with disabilities or health problems, tenants and residents' associations, and many more!
