

RECOGNITION RULES

- Give it or else
- Give it frequently
- Use a variety of methods
- It must be honest
- It should be given to the person not the work
- It should be appropriate to the achievement
- It should be consistent
- It must be timely
- It should be individualised as much as possible
- Don't ever use, allow to be used or leave unchallenged the statement 'only a volunteer' regardless of who says it.
- Don't put up barriers to their involvement – make them feel part of the organisation.
- Make sure paid staff are fully aware of how important volunteers are to our organisation.
