Southend Association of Voluntary Services Media Release

Are You The Person We're looking for?

23 August 2011

Effective date: Immediate

Contact: Julie Newman 01702 356003 jnewman@savs-southend.co.uk

Southend Association of Voluntary Services is a registered charity and council for voluntary service, we promote, encourage and develop voluntary and community action by empowering and providing excellent support and representation to frontline organisations throughout the Southend-on-Sea area and Eastern Region. Our Trustees serve for set periods of time which means we need to refresh and revitalise the Board from time to time. We are looking to select a small number of trustees with experience in the following fields:

- Marketing
- Law
- Buildings and Asset Management
- Business

All new trustees will receive an induction and further training and support to enable them to make the best possible contribution to the work of the charity and to gain the maximum personal satisfaction from their experience.

If you feel you could be the person then please do contact us for an application pack:

Background:

Southend Association of Voluntary Services, or SAVS as we are more frequently known, is a council for voluntary service, (CVS) part of a national network of similar organisations - you will find one in most towns. Our job is to advise and support local, not-for-profit groups. These groups provide all manner of services to the local area and include social clubs, groups advising people who care for a relative at home, advice and activities for people with disabilities or health problems, tenants and residents' associations, and many more!
